ANTI RAGGING REGULATION :-

Ragging is legally banned. It is a punishable offence. In view of the increasing number of events of ragging, the University Grants Commission has passed the "UGC Regulation on curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009. Ragging is "Any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student, or in rowdy or in-disciplined activities by any students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student or asking any student to do any act which such student will not in any ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment of embarrassment so as to adversely affect, the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student, with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing of power, authority of superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student."

The Anti – Ragging Committee may, depending on the nature and gravity of the quit established by the Anti- Ragging Squad, award, to those found guilty, one or more of the following punishments namely:

1. Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
2. Withholding / withdrawing scholarship / fellowship and other benefits.
3. Debarring from appearing in the test / examination or other evaluation process.
4. With holding results.
5. Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or International meet, tournament, youth festival, etc.
6. Suspension / expulsion from the hostel.
7. Cancellation of admission
8. Suspension of the guilty student from the institution for the period to ranging from one to four semesters.
9. Expulsion of the guilty student from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution for a specified period. Provided that where the persons committing or abetting the act or ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment.
10. Wednesday is no vehicle day.

The students are advised to consult the Anti- Ragging Committee in case of emergency.

Note – Students will have to submit the Annexure – I (Affidavit by the students) and Annexure – II (Affidavit by parent/ Guardian at the time of admission.
