- Inspire Ongoing Cleanliness Initiatives: To set a positive example and motivate participants to continue promoting cleanliness and environmental responsibility beyond the event.

Activities Undertaken: The event began with a brief introduction to Gandhi Jayanti, explaining the significance of Mahatma Gandhi's contributions to India and his commitment to cleanliness. The participants, including college staff and NSS students, gathered on the campus to commence the cleanup activities.

The cleanup involved various tasks, such as:

- Collecting litter and waste from the college grounds.
- Sweeping pathways and common areas.
- Cleaning and organizing garden spaces.
- Promoting recycling and proper waste disposal among the college community.
- The volunteers worked in teams, covering different areas of the campus to ensure a thorough cleanup. The atmosphere was filled with enthusiasm as everyone contributed to the cause, reinforcing the spirit of teamwork and community service.

Key Participants: The event was led by Principal Dr. Sharad Kulkarni, with support from Dr. Mahendra Shinde, Program Officer Dr. R. R. Benwad, and Dr. M. D. Savandkar. NSS students played a pivotal role in coordinating and carrying out the activities, demonstrating leadership and a commitment to Gandhi's ideals.

Outcome and Impact: The Cleanliness Week event had a positive impact on the college community. It not only improved the appearance of the campus but also raised awareness about the importance of cleanliness and environmental stewardship. The event fostered a sense of responsibility among students, encouraging them to maintain a clean environment and continue similar efforts in the future.
