

Activity Report: NSS Department Organized Constitution Awareness Day Programme

Date: 26th November 2019

Venue: Campus of Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu

Introduction:

The NSS Constitution Awareness Day Programme served as a beacon of enlightenment, endeavouring to illuminate the minds of participants with the profound significance of the Indian Constitution. Rooted in the ethos of democracy and justice, the programme meticulously focused on two paramount aspects: Fundamental Duties and the Preamble.

At its core, this event was not merely a gathering but a platform for intellectual discourse and civic empowerment. As the curtains rose with the inaugural address by Dr. M.S. Shinde, the stage was set for a journey through the corridors of constitutionalism. Dr. Shinde's poignant words resonated, underscoring the pivotal role of the Indian Constitution in sculpting a society founded on democratic principles and egalitarian ideals.

The symphony of enlightenment continued with distinguished guests, including Dr. R.R. Bainwad, Dr. M.D. Swandkar, and Dr. Kirti Niralwad, who adorned the occasion with their erudition. Through their keynote speeches, they unveiled the intricate tapestry of the Constitution, weaving together its various facets and emphasizing the indispensable role of citizens as custodians of its values.

The programme transcended the boundaries of traditional discourse, inviting active participation through interactive sessions. Here, students became torchbearers of dialogue, delving into discussions and queries surrounding the Fundamental Duties enshrined in the Constitution. This engagement was not merely academic but transformative, nurturing a sense of responsibility and ownership among the participants.

PRINCIPAL
Nutan Mahavidyalaya
SELU, Dist. Parbhani

In a poignant moment of unity, voices harmonized in the collective reading of the Preamble to the Constitution. This symbolic gesture reverberated with the essence of unity in diversity, signifying a collective commitment to the ideals enshrined within its words.

Furthermore, the programme was not confined to rhetoric but translated ideals into action through various awareness activities. Quizzes, debates, and poster-making competitions served as catalysts for introspection and learning, fostering an environment where knowledge transcended boundaries and transformed into empowerment.

Objective:

The NSS Constitution Awareness Day Programme aimed to deepen participants' understanding of the Indian Constitution, emphasizing Fundamental Duties and the Preamble. Through intellectual discourse and interactive sessions, it sought to empower individuals with a sense of civic responsibility and ownership. The event endeavored to foster a culture of constitutional consciousness, inspiring participants to become proactive agents of change in their communities.

Conclusion

The NSS-organized Constitution Awareness Day Programme at Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu, stands as a testament to the power of knowledge and collective endeavour. It ignited flames of awareness, instilling in participants a profound understanding of their roles as custodians of democracy and torchbearers of change. As the echoes of this event resonate, they reverberate not only within the walls of academia but throughout society, nurturing a culture of constitutional consciousness and civic engagement.

Attendees:

Dr. U.C Rathod

PRINCIPAL
Nutan Mahavidyalaya
SELU, Dist. Parbhani

Dr. M.S. Shinde

Dr. R.R. Bainwad

Dr. M.D. Swandkar

Dr. Kirti Niralwad

NSS Students

Event Highlights:

Inauguration: The event commenced with an inaugural address by Dr. M.S. Shinde, highlighting the importance of understanding and upholding the Indian Constitution in fostering a democratic and just society.

Keynote Speeches: Distinguished guests, including Dr. R.R. Bainwad, Dr. M.D. Swandkar, and Dr. Kirti Niralwad, delivered insightful speeches elucidating various aspects of the Constitution and emphasizing the role of citizens in upholding its values.

Interactive Sessions: The programme included interactive sessions where students actively engaged in discussions and queries regarding Fundamental Duties as outlined in the Constitution.

Preamble Reading: A collective reading of the Preamble to the Constitution was conducted, symbolizing unity and the collective commitment to the ideals enshrined in it.

Awareness Activities: Various activities such as quizzes, debates, and poster-making competitions were organized to raise awareness about the Constitution, encouraging active participation and learning among the attendees.

Outcome:

The Constitution Awareness Day Programme provided participants with a deeper understanding of the Indian Constitution, instilling in them a sense of responsibility

PRINCIPAL
Nutan Mahavidyalaya
SELU, Dist. Parbhani

towards their Fundamental Duties as citizens. The event fostered a culture of constitutional awareness and civic engagement among the students and guests present.

Conclusion:

The NSS-organized Constitution Awareness Day Programme at Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu, was a resounding success, contributing to the intellectual and civic development of the participants. Such initiatives play a crucial role in empowering individuals to become active and informed citizens, thereby strengthening the foundation of democracy.

Acknowledgments:

We extend our sincere gratitude to Dr. M.S. Shinde, Dr. R.R. Bainwad, Dr. M.D. Swandkar, Dr. Kirti Niralwad, and all the participants for their valuable contributions towards making the event a memorable and impactful one.

Evidence of success

PRINCIPAL
Nutan Mahavidyalaya
SELU, Dist. Parbhani

NSS Organized Constitution Day Programme

Basic details: - Constitution Day Programme On 26/11/2019 Dr. M.S. Shinde, Dr. R.R. Bainwad, Dr. M.D. Swandkar, Dr. Kirti Niralwad and Students are present. Fundamental Duty's and Preamble Reading.

[Signature]
PRINCIPAL
Nutan Mahavidyalaya
SELU, Dist. Parbhani

[Signature]
PRINCIPAL