This is to certify that the college has a MoU with Municipal Corporation Selu. As per this MoU, two way support whenever needed for the welfare of society and students of the college, it has to be given by both parties. During lockdown period, the college availed the sport ground for the vegetables vendors as well as auditorium hall for meetings to plan the actions needed to take as anti-corona preventive measures. This helped all COVID warriors and citizens of Selu to maintain the physical distance as one of the preventive remedy against COVID-19.

Apart from it, the institution provided Shriramji Bhangdiyaji Boys' hostel as accommodation place for migrating people. Where with the help of NGOs, their staffs, and other resources provided food and other hospitality including TV to keep them mentally fit and feel as familiar to this place.
