Organized by: Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu

Under the Aegis of: Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Nanded

Date: 07/08/2024

Introduction

Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu, proudly hosted the prestigious 'D' Zone Chess (Boys) Sports Competition under the Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Nanded, on 7th August 2024. The event was a significant gathering of intellectual minds, where participants from various institutions competed to showcase their strategic skills in chess. The competition aimed not only to highlight the importance of mental agility but also to foster a spirit of sportsmanship among the youth.

The inauguration ceremony was graced by several esteemed guests, including the Chief Guest, former Mayor Mr. Pawan Adhalrao, who emphasized the importance of intelligence and its role in achieving success in life. He underscored how chess, as a game, serves as an excellent medium to keep one's mind sharp and encouraged the youth to engage more with the game. Principal Dr. U. C. Rathod presided over the event, motivating students to incorporate sports into their lives for overall well-being.

Objectives:

- To promote the game of chess as a means of developing mental acuity and strategic thinking among students.
- To provide a platform for young chess enthusiasts to compete and showcase their skills.
- To encourage the participation of students in sports for their holistic development.
- To foster a spirit of healthy competition and sportsmanship among the youth.
- To recognize and reward the talents of emerging chess players within the university's jurisdiction.
