

Report of General Knowledge Competition

Introduction: Ekalavya Knowledge Enhancement, renowned for its innovative initiatives, collaborated with the college library of Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu (Parbhani District), to organize a captivating General Knowledge Competition in August 2019. This event aimed to ignite a passion for learning and competitive exams among college students.

Details of Event:

Date: 10th August 2019

Organized by: Library, Nutan Mahavidyalay Selu

A Gathering of Bright Minds:

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from a significant number of college students. The atmosphere crackled with anticipation as students tested their knowledge on a diverse range of topics. The competition format likely included questions encompassing current affairs, science, history, geography, and other areas, fostering intellectual curiosity and a well-rounded understanding of the world.

Celebrating Champions

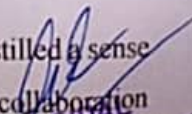

After a stimulating competition, the winners were proudly announced. Humera Firdaus Ansari emerged victorious, claiming the first place honor. Ayesha Ismail Sheikh secured a well-deserved second place. Additionally, Rituraj Jeevan Borade and Sanjana Sunil Shelke were recognized with encouragement awards, acknowledging their commendable efforts and knowledge.

Nurturing a Competitive Spirit:

This General Knowledge Competition served as a testament to Ekalavya Knowledge Enhancement's dedication to fostering a competitive spirit and a love for learning among college students. By providing a platform to showcase their knowledge and engage in intellectual challenges, the event empowered students and encouraged them to explore the vast realm of competitive exams.

Moving Forward with Knowledge:

The successful General Knowledge Competition not only challenged students but also instilled a sense of accomplishment and a thirst for further knowledge. Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu, in collaboration
