

Report on Excellent Reader Award Competition

Introduction: The Excellent Reader Award Competition, organized by the library, commenced from the preceding academic year with the aim of fostering a culture of extensive reading among students, thereby contributing to their comprehensive development through the power of literature. The competition was inaugurated on August 9, 2019, marking the birth anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the pioneer of library science.

Details of Event:

Date: 09/08/2019

Organized: Library, Nutan Mahavidyalaya, Selu.

Summary: Students actively participated by submitting written critiques and opinions on the books they read to the library. These submissions formed the basis for identifying outstanding readers. The competition was structured into two levels: Junior and Senior, accommodating the diverse reading interests and levels of the participants.

The closing ceremony, a culmination of months of literary exploration and analysis, took place on February 27, 2020. During the event, deserving winners were acknowledged and rewarded for their exemplary engagement with literature.
